

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

SAN DIEGO CITY COLLEGE EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

March 7 Film Screening & Director Q&A: Women of Islam — Veiling and Seclusion

The film reveals the diversity of Muslim culture and explores origins of veiling (hijab) in Muslim culture and confronts stereotypes and misconceptions about women in the religion of Islam.

12:45 – 2:00pm | MS-162

Sponsor: World Cultures

March 8 Annual City Women Rock Conference

Women's Empowerment, Leadership, Self-care and Access to Voice.

8:00am – 4:00pm | Kicks off at the Saville Theatre; Breakout Sessions in MS Building

Sponsor: City Women Rock Planning Committee

March 8 – April 1 Women in the Workplace Resource Display

To highlight issues women face while in the workforce and to increase student learning by showing them resources that the library has to offer.

Viewable during library operating hours | R Building

Sponsor: Library

March 12 Timely Talks: Sex and the Workplace

Timely Talks is a monthly panel series that approaches issues from an interdisciplinary perspective. In honor of Women's History Month, March's panel is going to discuss sex and the workplace, or how to manage romantic interest/relationships in workplace environments. We have professors from philosophy, communications, business, and psychology sitting on the panel.

11:10am – 12:35pm | MS-162

Sponsor: Philosophy

March 12 Film Screening & Q&A with Jennifer Leitham: I STAND CORRECTED

The film charts Jennifer Leitham's rise as a virtuoso of the upright bass and reveals how she risked everything with her decision to undergo sexual reassignment surgery. The film explores the fears she wrestled with as she rose through the ranks of the jazz world, and celebrates the joy she discovered after embracing her female identity.

11:10am – 12:35pm | Saville Theatre

Sponsor: Jazz 88.3, KSDS FM, Mental Health Counseling Center, Student Services

March 12 & 14 Female Fashionistas: Icons of Style, Women's Style of the Eras, The Mane Attraction

Reflection of female music icons through the years and women styles through period ages with poster boards and information in the classroom including mannequins. Fashion show will showcase styles from past to present in quad area.

Female Fashionistas and Women's Style of the Eras: 10:00am – 3:00pm

The Mane Attraction: 12:30 – 1:00pm and 2:00 – 2:30pm

BT-304, AH/BT quad area

Sponsor: Cosmetology 90L, Senior Students

March 18 #BelieveWomen

This student coordinated and led panel explores the social movement #BelieveWomen. The panel explores what the hashtag means, the operation of epistemic privilege and injustice, how this intersects with sex, gender, race and class, and the real world implications of epistemic privilege and injustice.

11:10am – 12:35pm | TBA

Sponsor: Philosophy/Social Justice Conference

March 19 She Was Warned: The Legalities of Being

She Was Warned is a panel that celebrates the San Diego women making history right now. Since so many Women's History Month events honor the same cast of women, our focus is on celebrating local, intersectional women's history. Broadly, the event consists of eight ordinary, diverse, San Diego women taking ten minutes to tell their story.

7:00 – 9:00pm | Black Box Theatre

Sponsor: Visionary Feminists Club/Social Justice Conference/World Cultures

For disability related accommodation requests, please contact oldham@sdccd.edu 5 days in advance.

